

- My Friend, Lion

©2005 by Marla Lewis

based on "The Frightened Lion" from SoundAlikes Books © 2005 by Bernadette Falletta

Lion and Tiger were drifting to sleep late one night
When howling and moaning awakened the lion in fright
Lion yelled. "Tiger, wake up! It's a monster, come see!"
Tiger said. "Lion, relax! It's the wind in the trees!"

Chorus:
*Don't worry, my friend, Lion!
Fear's only in your mind
Open your ears, open your eyes,
Everything's fine
You're just imagining
All kinds of awful things
Notice what's there
And you won't be scared
My friend, Lion*

Later that night they were sleeping so tight in their room,
When they were awakened by terrible flashes and booms!
Lion screamed, "Tiger! The house is on fire! We're doomed!"
"Lion, chill out! It's a thunderstorm! It will end soon!"

Chorus:

