For the past 20 years, Marla has been inspiring teachers throughout the New York City area with her "Literacy Through Literature and Music" approach that addresses the multiple intelligences that our children bring to the classroom. Marla's favorite motto is:

There are so many ways to be smart!

A veteran teacher of English as a Second Language and Music in New York City Schools, Marla has developed songs, stories, and methodologies that enhance language acquisition, reading, writing, listening, and speaking.

Best of all, Marla's programs create eager students!

Marla will demonstrate how her We Love To Read Program teaches reading through phonics, movement, and music to reach children of varied learning styles.

All programs are aligned with the New York State Standards of Learning.

Marla says,

"What do your children need to learn?"

My workshop has songs and activities for it! "
